

Integration Portfolio Assessment

Unlocking the potential of connected education with Adaptiv's Integration Assessment

"I think Adaptiv comes with a unique proposition, and that's its focus on integration and data. They're not trying to be everything to everyone. Compared to some of the other partners out there, Adaptiv's capabilities and skill sets are outstanding."
- Glenn Penfold, University of Waikato

Universities are contending with technological challenges ranging from enabling online learning to upgrading outdated infrastructure, all while enhancing cybersecurity and facilitating remote collaboration. These challenges arise amidst evolving student expectations and fiscal limitations. A comprehensive assessment is vital to understanding the institution's current digital maturity, which paves the way for a pragmatic digital transformation strategy.

This strategy is key to improving the digital experience for students and staff, which is essential for boosting satisfaction, retention, engagement, and productivity.

What is this offer about?
