Obsessive Support™

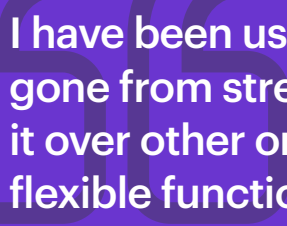

Okay, it's true. You're hot, and our Wunderwriters are obsessed with you.

Yeah, it is a bit creepy.

But that's what you get when you hire ex-underwriters, with the expertise of professional web designers.

Looks like they just really get a kick out of being contacted directly, and helping you grow your insurance products.

Sorry.

I have been using SchemeServe for several years now and it has gone from strength to strength in this time. We originally chose it over other on-line product management tools for its broad, flexible functionality and degree of control it offered us and have been pleasantly surprised by the level of support received and ever improving usability.

Mark Williams - Choice Insurance Agency

The SchemeServe team are friendly and helpful and are always developing SchemeServe further, taking on board user suggestions. SchemeServe itself offers a great degree of flexibility so you can be as involved as you want to be in the creation of your schemes, either creating them yourself, or using the expertise of a SchemeServe Scheme Builder to create it for you.

Nicky Robinson - Eastman Underwriting

As I.T. infrastructure is key to a successful business particularly in insurance. It is a delight to use SchemeServe some of the features available are particularly innovative. Also, the developers are really enthusiastic and as keen as the users to move it forward with new ideas that continue to streamline the administrative process. I fail to see how a successful business can operate without it and would highly recommend this system.
