

STOP THE RANSOMWARE THAT OTHERS CAN'T

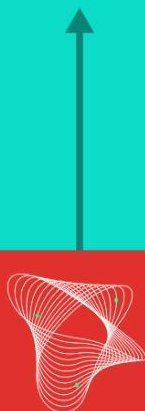

Preempt, block and remediate from ransomware attacks that evade today's leading EDR, XDR, and MDR tools

Ransomware attacks cost businesses millions. Many never recover. Incidents continue to surge, and current defenses simply aren't effective. Arms is an entirely new approach to ransomware defense.

Our Next Generation Anti-Ransomware Resiliency platform combines patented Automated Moving Target Defense (AMTD) for prevention, deceptive tripwires for detection, and stealth archival for resilience against evasive zero-day ransomware.

PREEMPT, BLOCK, AND REMEDIATE

With Arms Cyber, you can stay ahead of the attacker by continuously shifting the attack surface. Use advanced decoy capability to detect and neutralize ransomware before it causes harm. Restore critical business systems to their normal operational state in just seconds. Ransomware resilience is finally in your hands.

STOP KNOWN AND UNKNOWN RANSOMWARE IN ITS TRACKS

Arms Cyber transforms traditional defenses into a moving maze that disorients and disrupts even the most advanced attackers. From initial intrusion, through attempts at evasion, to malicious payload execution, Arms Cyber identifies and neutralizes ransomware threats earlier and more effectively than signature-based or behavioral methodologies.

REDUCE RISK

Incorporating ransomware prevention into your security stack significantly reduces the likelihood of your organization falling victim to a costly attack.

ACHIEVE COMPLIANCE

Arms Cyber helps your organization expand and maintain compliance with various standards, including the Cybersecurity Framework, NIST 800-53, HIPAA, and PCI.

REDUCE COSTS

Reducing encryption rates by 97% allows your organization to maintain safety while employing less costly analysts. This minimizes stress and friction, making your security operations more efficient and productive.
