Notre offre de service

Dans tous les secteurs d'activité, les travailleurs de première ligne constituent l'un des segments importants de la production des organisations. Ouvriers, vendeurs au détail, techniciens de terrain ou personnel de santé, l'usage des appareils est souvent mutualisé et associé à la fonction plutôt qu'à l'individu. En cas d'incident, la productivité des collaborateurs peut-être fortement freinée et sévèrement impacter l'activité de l'entreprise.

Notre offre de service permet d'identifier les besoins et les contraintes des travailleurs de première ligne et d'élaborer une stratégie de gestion des appareils associée dans la droite ligne des meilleures pratiques du Modern Workplace.

* Présenter les usages pour les appareils (KIOSK, BYOD ou appareil partagée) et contextualiser le besoin dans votre organisation

* Définir les options de design et le scénario d' enrôlement des appareils usages collaboratif en toute sécurité"
