

Keep track of your Microsoft 365 Licensing and save money

Microsoft 365

Microsoft offers many different collaboration and productivity solutions. Licensing these suites can easily be done in a way, where the customer is paying for more than needed.

With our Microsoft 365 Subscription Analysis, you can get an overview of your licenses and see which licenses have been used or not. We can help you get an inventory of your licenses and put together the most optimal license mix with a strict focus on compliance and economy.
