

Securely empowering your frontline

Experience how to put next-generation Microsoft security tools to work for your entire workforce

In today's world, the frontline workforce, which represents nearly 2 billion people worldwide, is the backbone of communities and economies around the world. 88% of organizations employ people in frontline roles and when frontline workers say something is not working, we can't afford to ignore them

Atech enable our customers to empower their frontline workforce with technology that helps them concentrate on what matters most, with solutions that improve engagement, efficiency, and with security at the heart of what we deliver.

Frontline Worker Pilot

Working with Microsoft, we are offering a new Pilot program to enable you to transform frontline experiences with solutions that improve engagement, efficiency and security.

This 12-week pilot will provide you with an accelerated hands-on experience to modernize your frontline employee experience with purpose-built, cloud-based modern work solutions in your environment.

Frontline Challenges

Frontline workers struggle with disconnected, standalone solutions that hinder effective management of schedules and tasks.<sup>1</sup>

44% of frontline workers refer to workload as one of the top reasons for work-related stress.<sup>2</sup>

Frontline workers lack reliable methods to pass critical information to the next shift, burdening productivity.<sup>1</sup>
