The Awardco Homepage

Your homepage is the central hub for recognitions, redemptions, company news, and more.

Recognition Programs

Your organization may have one program or many. Many organizations start with a service award program, then open other programs like peer-to-peer recognition and incentives.

Recognize

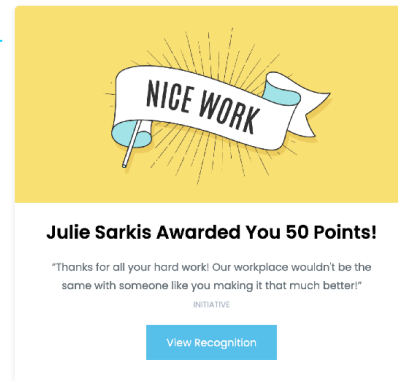

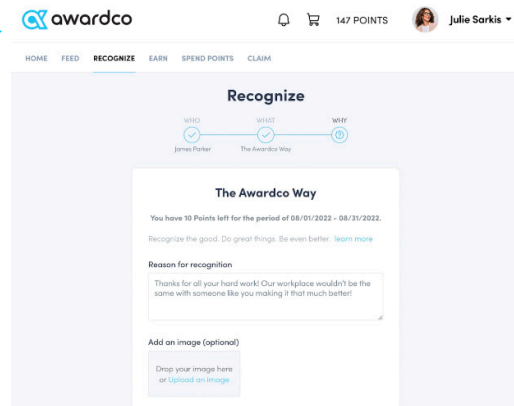

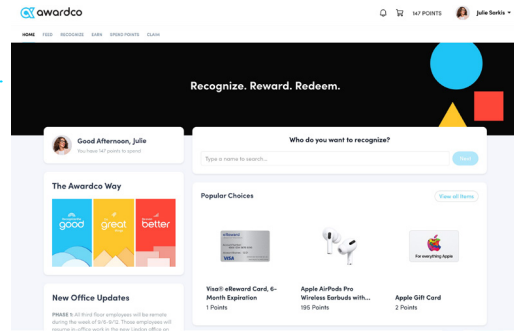

Recognition is easy as 1, 2, 3. Choose who you want to recognize, leave a note, and send it off.

Make it Personal

The best way to show appreciation is to be specific and sincere in recognition. Tag recognitions with company values and reward points (optional).

Email Notifications

Recipients receive an email notification with a link to the social feed to see the recognition, as well as comments and reactions.

Recognition Feed

Recognitions are shown in a public feed where you can comment and react. Recognitions can also be made private.

Spending Points

Millions of options through Amazon, hundreds of hotels through Priceline, event tickets, gift cards, company swag, and more.

Shopping Cart

See all your items, make wishlists, and more.

Checkout & Shipping

Checking out is a breeze with a familiar checkout experience. Enter your shipping info, select your shipping options, and you're done!
