

Data Platform Modernization

Data Platform Modernization is used to identify an end-to-end Business Intelligence and Analytics solution built leveraging the cutting-edge cloud-native services offered by the Azure Public Cloud Services.

BIP guides his customers in migrating and modernizing legacy data warehouses to Public Cloud by enabling new paradigms for data-driven organizations.

Business Benefits

Cost Benefits

- Elimination of up-front investment
- Elimination of on-prem related OpEx
- Reduction of EDW daily administration costs
- Consumption based pricing

Reduce time to market

- Deliver customer apps quickly

New AI use-cases

- Off-the-shelf AI capabilities

Unlock real-time insights

- Re-act quickly to changes

Security

- Build with the Highest Standards for Privacy and Data Security

Business Continuity

- Reduce business disruption

Service Model

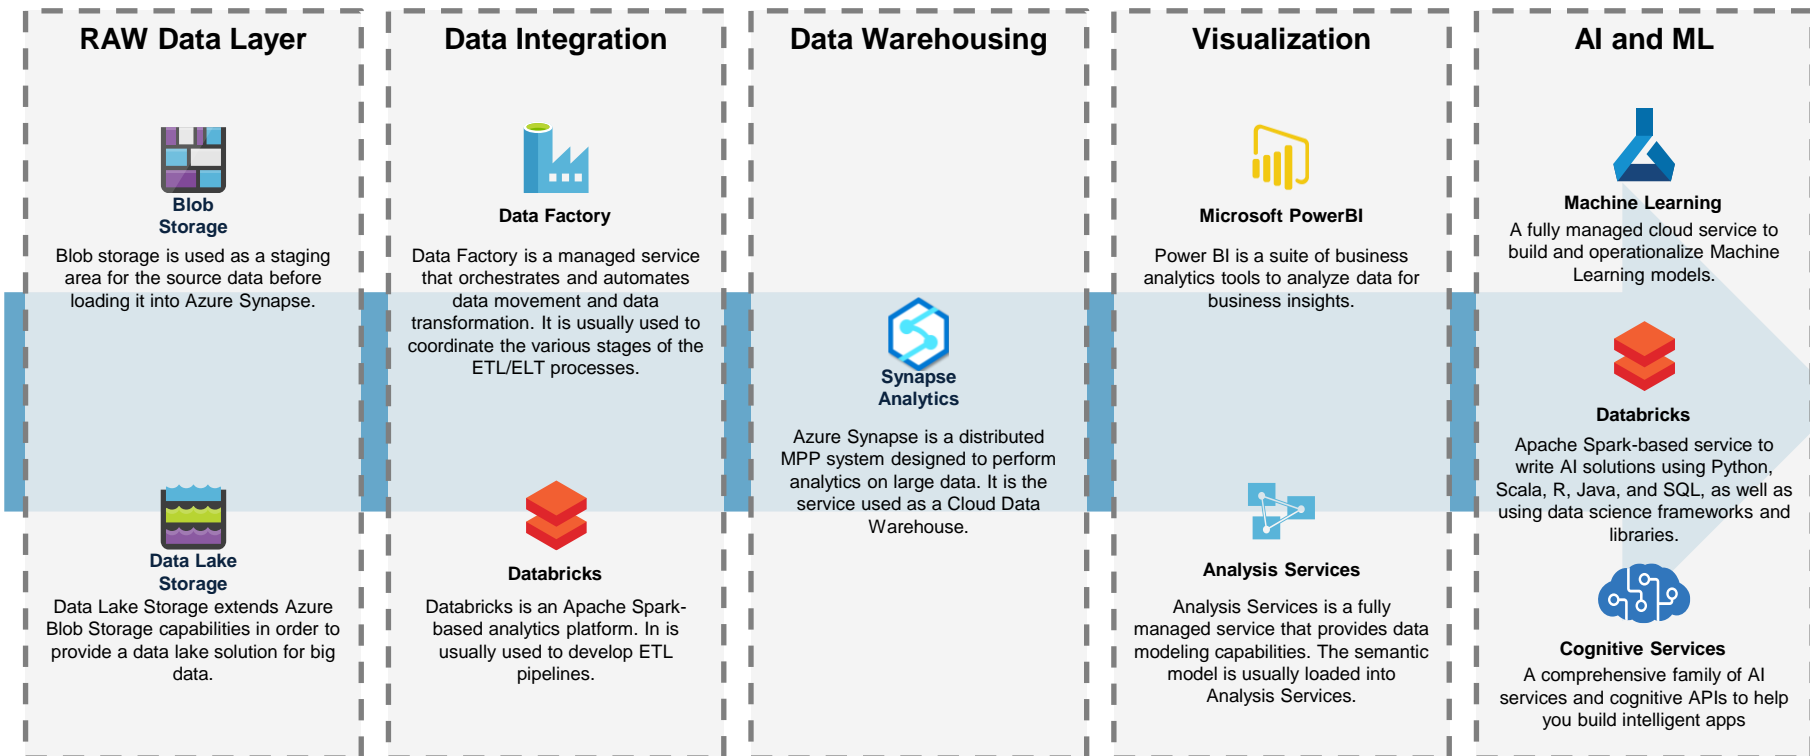

- Restructuring IT costs

Flexible work

- Greater flexibility in how employees work

Data Platform Modernization on Microsoft Azure

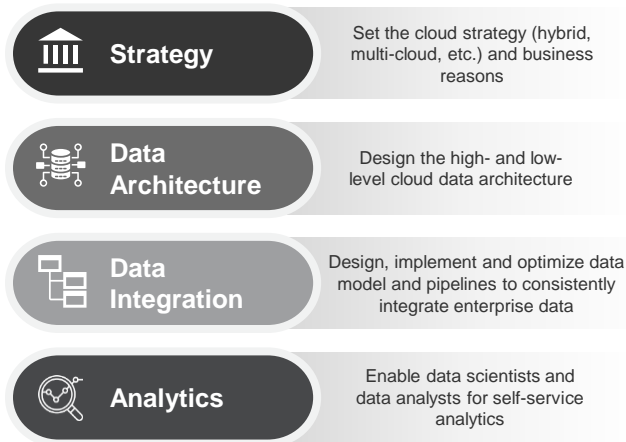

Microsoft Azure provides a suite of cloud-native services to define an end-to-end Data Analytics solution.

Approach to Data Platform Modernization for Analytics

Keeping in mind four areas of intervention, the approach is to set up a three-step approach to sustain the evolution of the key fundamentals towards the Data Platform Modernization for Analytics

Components

Approach

