Migration of legacy systems

"We are now on Teams! And now we pay double licenses. How can I get rid of the old rest?"

"We have 500 Lotus Notes Apps here. What do I do with them?"

"SharePoint 2010 has been discontinued! Which workflows are actually running there? And what do I do with them?"

Demand for apps growing

"Can I turn this Excel into an app?"

"Here comes the next request from the business department! How are we going to manage that?!"

Application Management

"Should I do this now with Excel, Azure, SharePoint or Power Platform?!"

"This Excel from the financial accounting department broke. The annual report is in serious trouble!"

Environment Strategy

"Countless environments have been created! Where do they come from? How do I clean this up?"

Securing the platform

"Company data just went out via Twitter!" "How can I secure my systems against data leaks?"

Customer Value. The true lever of the Power Platform. Realizing added value for all sides.

Company

- Low code is more than "yet another platform".
- Viable building block for agilization.
- Serving demands where they arise.
- Become faster and more flexible, save costs.
- Contribution to digital strategy.
- Leveraging innovation.

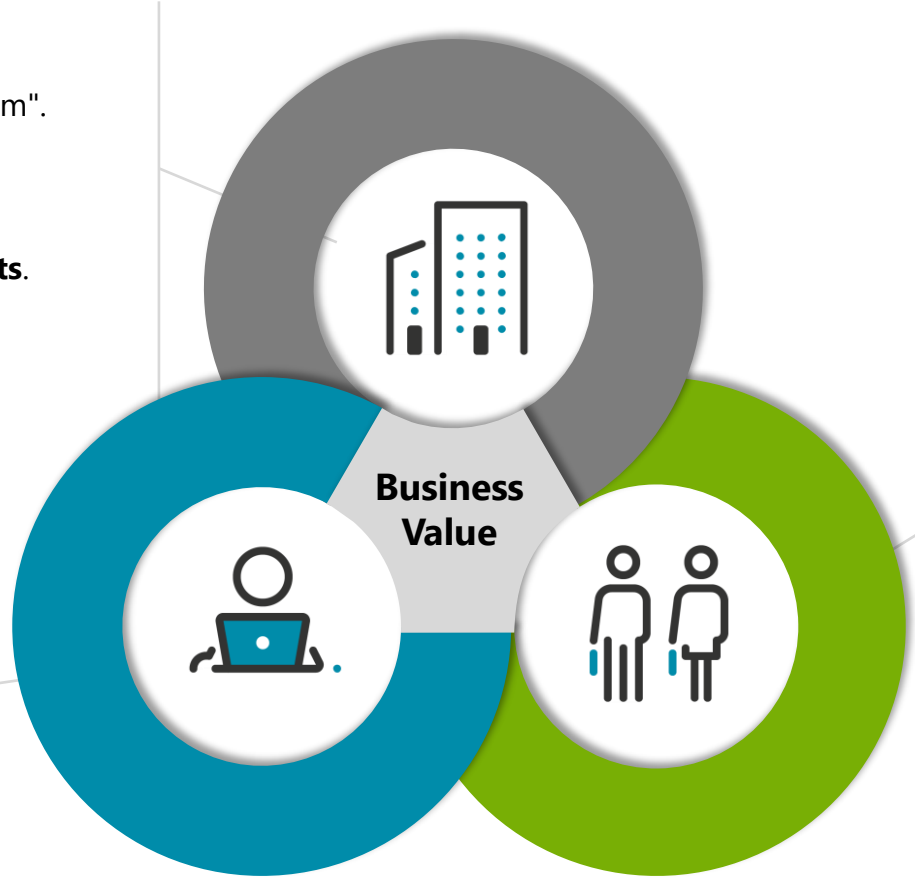
IT

- Shift to business department significantly reduces overhead.
- Ratio coordination to development of ~60:40 will be significantly improved.
- Claims-Mgmt. will be reduced.
- Focus on the essentials: secure operations, governance, consulting and hard-cod(r)e development.



BUSINESS USER

- Time and effort for the implementation of smaller, fewer complex applications is reduced.
- Engaged users can design their own workplace.
- This increases acceptance of the solutions, as scope is directly oriented to the benefits.
- Immediate traction is apparent (unlike, for example, when adapting to underlying systems or in large top-down programs.

Our solution. Building blocks for successful citizen development for maximum value creation.
