

AI Document Reviewer Jump Start

Jump Start your Generative AI Journey

Sogeti's AI Document Reviewer Jump Start leverages our AI Innovation Pod to automate the review and analysis of your documents. Our design thinking workshop rapidly identifies your organization's document-intensive processes and designs a strategic roadmap for implementing an AI-powered solution that transforms how your teams review documents.

90%

Of all enterprise data is unstructured, a large portion being in the form of documents

50%

Of an employee's time is spent searching for information, with a significant portion reviewing documents

$20

Use Case

Challenge

A law firm was struggling to manually review thousands of contracts each year. The process was slow, expensive, and prone to errors.

Solution

Through our Jump Start design thinking workshop, Sogeti implemented an AI document reviewer that automated the process of contract review.

Results

The firm was able to reduce the time it takes to review a contract by 90%, save millions of dollars in review costs, and significantly reduce the risk of errors.
