Knowledge Base Inventory AI Assistant

The ChatPorter AI Assistant, built on the company's knowledge base, is an advanced system designed to support employees, partners, and customers. Through conversational interactions, users can get answers to questions, report issues, and receive support. Powered by the Azure platform and leveraging LLM models from OpenAI, the system seamlessly integrates with various data sources and systems through APIs and webhooks.