SharePoint Structure Creator resolves the issue of unique permissions scope limits that frequently arises when storing Dynamics 365 CE documents in SharePoint.

A unique, ready-to-use add-on solution that automatically creates or selects document libraries in SharePoint based on the rules you define:

- A document library per letter or letter set (based on the starting character(s) of the record name or the starting character(s) of the record ID)
- A document library per period (year, quarter, month, week, day, or custom)
- A document library per record
- Custom - define any business rules you can imagine by using custom scripting and LUA programming language.
