Power BI Live Dashboard Data Pusher

Watch your digital processes live

The key benefit for organizations using our Live Dashboard Data Pusher is integration of all existing systems into live dashboards that can help to control and orchestrate different organizations, processes, functions and events. With Power BI Live Data Pusher you can integrate any available information from any database related system on any place into one dashboard

What is Power BI Live Dashboard Data Pusher?

Power BI Live Data Pusher extension for Microsoft Power BI Live dashboards, targeted to existing database transaction systems that needs to be monitored with live dashboard. It is simple to use software that can make live dashboards for literally any database related system in 5 easy steps

Why customers use Power BI Live Dashboard Data Pusher

Fast Adoption,

Easy to use ,

Time saving,

Monitor legacy systems,

Orchestrate different systems with single live dashboard,

Aggregate different solutions from different locations into one live dashboard

Mobile live data view

Create live dashboard in 5 easy steps

Get a live dashboard in 5 easy steps. You just need one computer that can access data that should be published to live dashboard, and some skill to extract data from database

It's easier that ever to to monitor processes and events in real time

Extend your legacy systems

With Power BI Live Dashboard Data Pusher you can extend any database related legacy system, and get new insights of digital processes and monitor them in real time.

New live view to the old data

Aggregate information from different systems

Real time information from different systems can be aggregated into single live dashboard

Contract management, Supplier lists, Purchase order management

---

We use Live Dashboard to monitor 194 call center calls and manage agents in real time. Also we can orchestrate and manage time slots for EMS vehicles maintenance and service. We have live view of all important EMS events in real time from any place in the world.

- Goran Čolaković, General Manager , Emergency Medical Service Centar Belgrade

---

CPU

Power BI Live Dashboard Data Pusher business benefits

Efficiency

- Real time view of data and events
- Combine data from different systems
- Easy to use and maintain

Microsoft Power BI Based Solution

- Data Pusher is extension for Microsoft Power BI
- You can rely on best enterprise grade BI solution
- No infrastructure or maintenance costs

Savings on integration and upgrades

- Use existing data sources
- Reduce integration costs
- Extend existing solutions with live dashboards

Power BI Live Dashboard Data Pusher

Our promise to you

Data pusher will extend your business solutions with live dashboards. It will give you a new view to your business and allow you to better understand interactions between different systems, processes, to historically analyze and find gaps that will improve your business.

An offer to get you started

- You will see results in few days
- The cost of this extension is even 10 times less than additional development
- You will have real time insight of your business 24/7/365
- It will help organization to optimize and improve existing processes
- You can use your internal knowledge and resources to design and build your live dashboards.

Live business information at your palm

- As many complicated steps to get a live data that gives you relevant information, our software is remarkably simple, fast and affordable to implement. Just define key indicators and connect them to live dashboard. Daily reports sometime are not good enough, for dynamic business environments that need modern interface that enables seamless and real-time management. Power BI Live Dashboard Data Pusher is tool available today for completely new perspective of your business.

Why CPU?

With proven knowledge and efficiency in realizing critical business solutions, we are the leading company in region offering the full spectrum of ICT services. Our team of seasoned professionals will build, integrate and deploy custom-made solutions especially tailored for your business.

CPU