

Copilot for Microsoft 365 – Readiness Workshop

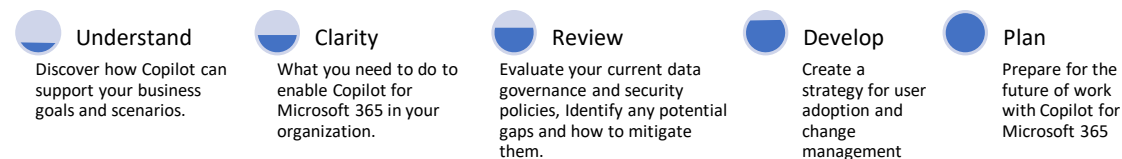

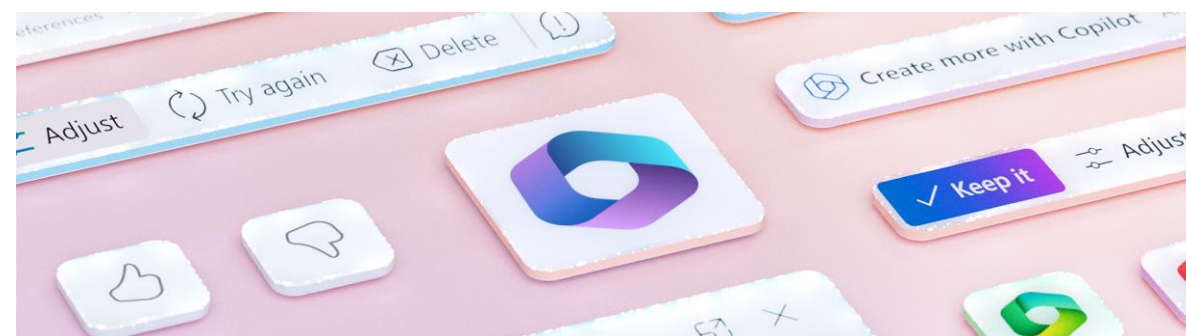

Copilot for Microsoft 365 is a cloud based solution that helps businesses use the benefits of AI while maintaining data protection and complying with company rules. It lets you work together across teams, regions, and devices with simplicity and trust.

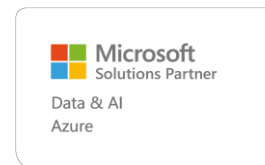

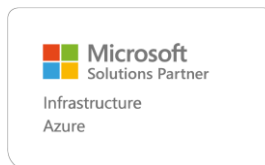

The best way to begin your journey with Copilot is to attend the twoday CTGlobal Readiness Workshop. This workshop will provide you with an immersive and comprehensive introduction to Copilot for Microsoft 365, and help you prepare for a smooth and successful adoption within your organization. You will learn how to:

Copilot for Microsoft 365 phases:

- Understand the potential, advantages, and boundaries of Copilot for Microsoft 365 Copilot your business scenarios and use cases
- Clarify the prerequisites and options to facilitate Copilot for Microsoft 365 Copilot deployment and usage
- Review your current data governance and security policies, and identify potential gaps and risks that need to be addressed before adopting Copilot for Microsoft 365
- Develop strategies for seamless user onboarding and change management, and ensure a smooth transition to innovative workflows and organizational productivity
- Plan for data expansion and future integrations, and explore the extensibility options of Copilot

At twoday ctglobal, we have a wealth of experience and knowledge in cloud platform, services and security and Copilot for Microsoft365. We listen to our customers and provide them with smart solutions that leverage Microsoft technology capabilities. We adhere to the highest standards and the core principles of cloud security, ensuring reliable information and data protection. We have a wide range of services and certifications, and we keep pace with the global trends of the IT industry. With twoday ctglobal, you can start your Copilot for Microsoft 365 journey with peace of mind.

CTGlobal Denmark
 Vesterlundvej 14
 2730 Herlev
 Denmark
 +45 4342 9601
 info@ctglobalservices.com