Complex security envrionments are causing many businesses with Microsoft Security E3 or E5 licenses to experience trouble with:

> Optimizing their licensing spend

> Achieving specific security goals

> Integrating their security capabilities without losing previous custom development efforts.

> Staff lacking product experience and training

> Missing or unaware of integration or features

> Lack of automation capabilities

HOW IT WORKS

Many businesses have multiple overlapping, and bespoke tools in their security environment and don't even know where to start when it comes to strengthening their security posture. That is exactly what Difenda's End-to-End Roadmap is for. We help you take a step back and understand your current environment, then plan steps to get to where you want to go.

1. Information collection workshop: Difenda will meet with you to collect information about you and the current security infrastructure of your business to assess your current environment.
2. Difenda provides a visual of the environment and together we decide on the ideal outcome for security posture.
3. Difenda will provide a modular and incremental security map with actionable steps to achieve that goal while maximizing your Microsoft investment.
