

Power BI Insight in 10

Ready to supercharge the way your team makes decisions?
Organisations struggling to see Power BI take off often find:

Delivered within 10 weeks

You need this if these problems sound all too familiar:

Manual Reporting

Insight required for key decision making is delayed by manual efforts, which are subject to varied versions of the truth.

Lack of Adoption

Efforts to engage your people with Power BI leave you feeling uncertain of the value of the tool.

Skill Gaps

Your data team may be self-taught and find themselves unsure on how to scale reporting for the ambition of your growing organisation.

Missed Opportunities

Your legacy reporting has gaps which prevent true data driven decision making, or lead to poor executive visibility.

To truly change the way you operate as a business, Power BI deliveries should be more than KPIs in a dashboard. Let our experts take your team on a journey toward the future of analytics.

Our Delivery...

Weeks 1-4

We take time to understand your organisations needs and ambitions and define the scope of your bespoke report delivery. Model development begins, and our experts get started on your governance features.

Weeks 5-8

You'll start to see your first reports delivered in this window, as UAT of models begins. Your team can be part of this experience, learning alongside our experts.

Weeks 9-10

It's time to launch – your new models and reports go into production following delivery of UAT feedback. We also conduct the Consumer, Explore and Advanced Training Workshops.

Our Bespoke Power BI Implementation can be delivered 10 weeks

Our Approach > A bespoke implementation of supercharged Power BI

Deliver

Implementation of Best-in-class Power BI Reporting

We deliver two semantic models and associated reports that will unlock the value of your data. We work to industry standard best practice, leaving you with easy to maintain models and value adding reports for immediate ROI.

Embed

Upskilling your people through knowledge transfer

At Dufraim, our experts are delighted to share our experience with your teams. We can embed your people in our delivery squad to allow optimal upskilling, or provide transparent technical reviews depending on your team's capacity and needs.

Govern

Ensuring long-term adoption through solid platform governance

Our industry leading Power BI Adoption framework allows us to deliver governance features to you at pace. From version control and deployment plans, to monitoring solutions and everything you need to know about Power BI & Fabric administration, we'll deliver the peace of mind you need to future proof your reporting goals.

Launch

Building excitement for your users with training workshops

As we launch your new reporting from testing to production, let's get your target users excited with consumer and explorer training workshops. The key to ROI from reporting deliveries is empowering users to be excited and get what they need early on.

Deliverables

- > Delivery of 2 Power BI Semantic Models and associated reports (2-5 depending on scope)
- > Delivery of 3 Power BI Governance Features
- > Coaching, Advanced Training and Handover for your BI teams
- > Consumer and Explore Training sessions for your end users
- > Managed UAT and Production launch for your new models and reports

Our Experience

After working with Dufraim, organisations saw their BI adoption health scores improve by an average of 40%.

"This will fundamentally change the way we operate as a business"

Our clients see the benefit of not just a report delivery, but a shift in the culture of data teams and end users. We aim to supercharge the Power BI Culture in your organisation, leaving lasting impact for your people.

"This is the most functionality this team will have ever had access to in a report"

Our Power BI experts love to innovate. Tell us your loftiest reporting ambitions and let us see what we can deliver for you. We will help you press beyond operational KPI dashboarding, and work to shape persona driven reporting that makes real impact to your organisations decision making.

"Dufraim as a partner are flexible, responsive and delivery focussed and have helped us deliver our vision of enabling us to become more data driven."

We are excited to be your long-term data partners and support you with your ongoing data transformation.
