

Modern Workplace

A modern digital workplace

With Modern Workplace, you can choose what IT support you want to deliver to your users – and we take care of the rest. You have modern, secure client management and can focus on your core business.

Many companies are facing a major challenge as users demand a modern workplace. The new work method puts high demands on the internal delivery of IT services. As a company, you have to offer userfriendly tools while still keeping track of security.

Modern Workplace from Dustin gives you the support you need to provide a digital workplace. We take care of managing the company's clients, including software updates, monitoring, proactive problem-solving and incident management.

Includes Mac, smartphones and tablets. You avoid responsibility for operations and the solution also includes generous user support that lightens the load on the IT department.

Users get the support and the tools they need to be productive, while you have control over security and costs.

Get in touch with us and we'll help you to save time and money with a modern digital workplace.

The service includes a basic offering that can be supplemented with additional services for a customised solution at a fixed price per user per month.

What does the service include?

- A problem-free, secure client environment
- Proactive monitoring
- Service desk and user support
- Add clients according needs, preference and taste
- Full control over your costs
- Operation of client environment and software updates
- Tools for security and regulatory requirements
- Tools for collaboration and efficiency
- Out-of-the-box experience

Benefits

Why Dustin?

With a Nordic logistics apparatus and strong partners behind us, we can deliver with a high level of precision. We have specialists to help you to set up the service and recommend additional services based on your needs. You have full control over your costs and help in choosing the most cost-efficient way to manage the modern workplace.

A service for...

Modern Workplace is ideal for all companies and public sector organisations that want a modern workplace.