

Translate Data into your Competitive Advantage with Eastwall's Fabric Accelerator & QuickStart

AI is causing a massive platform shift, but AI is only as good as your data. Your organization needs to develop & optimize a data strategy while empowering teams to facilitate platform-based self service and federation.

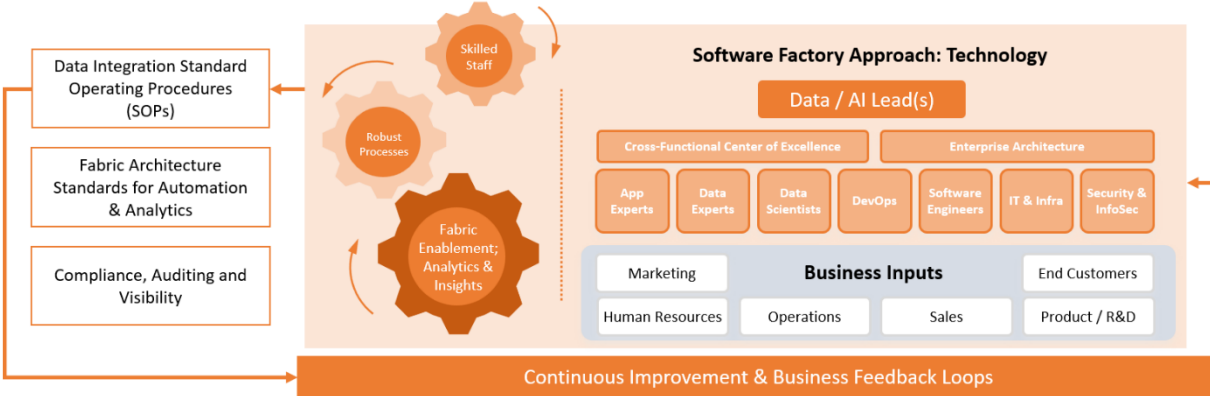

- Develop Tool-based Expertise
- Reduce cycle time to innovate
- Outline clear investment ROIs
- Deliver value to business stakeholders

Eastwall accelerates Microsoft Fabric adoption through a Four-Week guided approach. No matter what fits your business best, your team will receive hands-on experience reviewing Fabric requirements, evaluating your current & forward-looking data approach, selecting Fabric reference architectures best suited for you, and building knowledge internally to support long-term success.

Eastwall provides insights & processes that can help you scale your implementation thereafter.

We'll provide you with a robust roadmap for short & long-term that can help you build a factory-approach to data modernization & analytics insights.
