Emergent Software will facilitate a 5-hour workshop:

- Identify key use cases
- Flush out use case value and feature set
- Determine which use cases are technically feasible and can deliver the most value
- Deliver GenAI strategy

Each use case will be evaluated against our AI framework to quantify its value. As your use cases are confirmed, they will be categorized into return on investment or return on experience. Finally, we apply a total cost of ownership for each use case at scale.
