“RISK uses FRISS to perform important screenings during the seconds it takes to complete an application. We also call this touchless trust: all customers with a good risk profile are immediately accepted.”

“FRISS is automatically consulted for all new policy applications, whether direct or via an intermediary. The results of FRISS screenings are decisive and help us further decide what should be accepted, reviewed, or rejected.”

“Our underwriting process is a fully automated digital process. It is important that decisions should always be explainable. FRISS helps in this by sending all explanations along with the screening so that a rejection can be explained to the customer.”
