Workplace Analytics

Microsoft Viva Insights in Workplace Analytics provides business leaders with unprecedented insights about how people spend their time, and who they spend it with. These insights empower business leaders to drive strategies for sales, employee engagement, and productivity initiatives.

Identify opportunities to build better work habits

Prioritize wellbeing with actionable recommendations, such as reserving time for focused work, and taking regular breaks.

Understand the impact of work patterns on employee wellbeing and business outcomes with manager and leader insights.

Default safeguards protect individual privacy.

Generation-e's one-week engagement delivers:
- Overall guidance on strategy, planning, design, roadmap and impact analysis
- Identify issues and risks and business opportunities
- Pre-packaged services to deliver measurable results

Address complex challenges with advanced tools and additional data sources.

Enhance insights and experiences with Glint, LinkedIn, and Headspace. Additional license required

Get insights to build better work habits, such as following through on commitments made to collaborators.

Experiences are becoming more automated and driven by AI