

Dolphins Drama System

The Dolphins Drama System is a full-process digital script automatic generation system. After being trained on massive professional video script shooting data, professional script tasks can be completed according to the user's shooting requirements and the attributes of the project. This includes creative concept copywriting scripts, scene scripts, scene engineering configurations, and shot-by-shot tasks.

