Gosocket ioFacturo

Currently in the Latin American market there are small and medium-sized companies that are looking for simple and adjustable solutions to issue electronic tax documents for their business.

Gosocket
THE COMPANIES NETWORK®

Challenges

Find an ally that fits your needs in your business ecosystem and is easily accessible.

- Comply with the tax regulations of your country.
- Have 100% available storage backup
- Easy access to your information and friendly use.

Ideal Solution

- An easily accessible online tool.
- A solution that allows you to customize your content according to the line of business.
- A solution that meets the legal requirements for the issuance of electronic documents.

- Ease of issuing electronic invoices at any time and place.
- Solution that you can customize to your business.
- Mandatory compliance according to the requirement by country.

Desired Outcomes

With Gosocket's ioFacturo, you can calmly control and order electronic tax documents, have them validated and distributed in minutes. In addition, our platform takes advantage of all the benefits of Azure, such as security and scalability.

- Easy management of your financial information.
- Backup and security of your information with Azure in Gosocket's ioFacturo.
- To comply according to the law of each country according to the tax obligation.

Gosocket ioFacturo

Invoice electronically in an easy and friendly way.

Experience

- We have more than 20 years of experience throughout Latin America in tax processes by country.
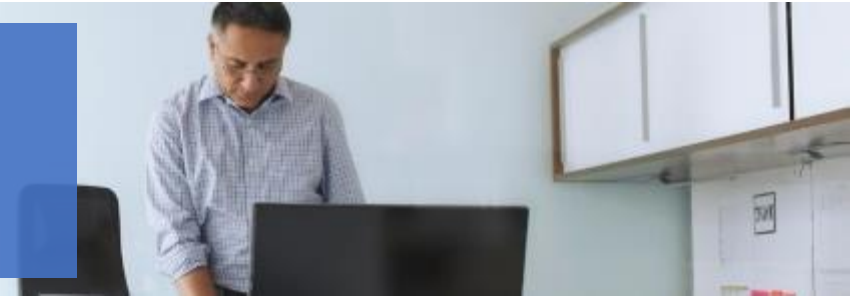

For all

- Our solution fits all types of business.
- It complies with all legal requirements in each country.
- It is customizable for each business and its needs

Security and Storage

- With Microsoft Azure support you can have your information stored.
- With Gosocket's experience and support, your information is safe and secure.

Gosocket is the leading platform in Latin America for the electronic exchange of documents based on digital signatures.

Gosocket ioFacturo
Microsoft Azure

Easy access to information based on modern storage technologies, which allows users to search very quickly, even in operations with a large number of transactions.

Solution Alignment

Almost infinite scalability	High availability(99.95%)	Security
Infrastructure growth, as they are required by the solution (on-demand).	Including the replication of the most critical components, which is very important for our contingency plan.	Special services mobile devices, social networks, electronic payments, and others with a high level of security.