HCL Teamwork Premium
A platform driven approach to deliver end-to-end UC solutions

- HCL delivers end-to-end solutions that holistically address the customer's unified communication & collaboration requirements

- Our platform-driven approach gives us the flexibility to deliver UC solutions that best match the customer's UC context and business objectives

- Microsoft Teams and Microsoft Teams Phone are components of the end-to-end UC solution; they may be complemented by

  - UC equipment from other vendors (eg Cisco, …)
  - AI-powered bots
  - Automated collaboration workflows
  - Business applications

- Our proven methodologies and frameworks enable us to efficiently design, implement, operate and support the end-to-end UC environment
