

Reimagine business productivity with a flexible HP Subscription Management Service for Microsoft.

Streamline licenses, renewals, updates, and upgrades.

A major upside to the flexible work model has been increased productivity—as much as 51% or more¹. But it can be challenging to accommodate employees' expectations and keep up with new standards for navigating both remote and on-site work.

Microsoft 365 helps business owners embrace flexibility and be ready for hybrid work. With Microsoft Teams and familiar Office apps, people can chat, call, host online meetings, and collaborate on documents in real time.

HP Subscription Management Service for Microsoft 365 helps companies easily monitor workforce requirements and software usage, then quickly shift and scale Microsoft subscription investments to align with the evolving needs of the hybrid workplace.

- Tap into powerful subscription analytics and actionable insights from an easy-to-use license-management dashboard.
- Monitor usage data to make smarter renewal decisions, and optimize IT investments.
- Secure your workforce wherever they are with essential cloud security health checks optimized for the hybrid workplace

See how HP Subscription Management Service can give you actionable insights into your software portfolio for a data-driven, cost-optimized software management strategy.

87% of businesses plan to prioritize tech investments to support sustained remote work¹

Smarter, more flexible software decisions
