

Free Assessment for Enabling Power BI in your Organization

Free assessment of your training, enablement, and change management needs to effectively adopt and utilize Power BI across all user groups.

Change readiness

Communication planning

Risk management

Training requirements

Instructional content development needs

Change Management best practices

What will your business get from this assessment?

- An understanding of how to plan communications from start to finish and beyond
- How to identify pockets of the organization that are at risk for not adopting Power BI
- Actionable recommendations for building and establishing a training and enablement approach to drive adoption

