Infosys
Navigate your next

Inventory Management App

Infosys Inventory Management Solution Offering on D365 Business Central

Infosys Inventory Management Solution enables enterprises to view and manage inventories in a fingertip through visually rich interface which is accessible from both mobile and desktop. It leverages data from D365 Business Central, improve overall efficiency of managing inventories, enables approval through Microsoft Teams.

This solution help enterprise to optimize inventory levels and ensure item availability across multiple channels. The primary objective of this solution is to ensure there is enough goods or materials to meet demand without creating overstock, or excess inventory.

- Allow inventory managers to track inventories on the go through proactive alerting

- Integrated approval workflow within MS Teams for seamless collaboration

- Realtime integration with D365 Business Central

- Comprehensive data model to support integration with other ERP

Usability

Multi channel integration, makes easy to use while users are on the go, collaborate using existing platforms like Microsoft teams.

Security

Role Based Access Control ensures data security, organizational policies to prevent data loss between enterprise ERP and mobile app.

Extendibility

Modular design of this solution allows to integrate with range of ERP software, providing flexibility towards plug in & out. Real time inventory data available within this solution, allows this solution to extend and add additional use cases.

Empowering

Minimal touch of code empowers business users to customize solution through configurations.