PEOPLE, PROCESSES, AND TECHNOLOGY

Whether Copilot for M365, ChatGPT, Azure OpenAI, or one of the numerous other tools being introduced, integrating these tools into your business process and using them to augment your team's productivity is critical to building and maintaining your competitive advantage. Hence, an adoption plan is needed. There are three areas to consider when implementing AI within your company: People, Processes, and Technology – all three are equally important for a successful adoption of AI.
