"Transform Education with Jones Software's Velocity Learning Management and Virtual Classroom Solutions integrated with Microsoft Products, offering personalized learning, collaboration tools, and a seamless virtual classroom experience for K-12 and Higher Education institutions."

At Jones Software, we are reimagining the future of education by modernizing school experiences. Our solutions are designed to be flexible and adaptable, allowing schools to meet the unique needs of their students. We are creating opportunities with digital transformation by providing access to cutting-edge technology and empowering teachers with the tools they need to be successful.

Jones Software's Velocity Learning Management system and Virtual Classroom solutions integrated with Microsoft Products, and iLikeMath and computer science curricula offer a comprehensive and efficient solution to transform education. The solution's features address the challenges faced by educators and students, and its integration with Microsoft products enables a seamless and familiar experience. The benefits of the ISV solution are numerous, and it addresses the disruptors in the education sector by providing a flexible and adaptive solution that can respond to changes in the education landscape.

See what customers are saying: About US:

❞ Velocity Learning Management system and Virtual Classroom solutions integrated with Microsoft Products have been a game-changer for our institution. The personalized learning experience and virtual classroom features have enabled us to continue providing high-quality education, even during the pandemic. We highly recommend this application to any educational institution looking to transform their teaching methods and improve student engagement."

Chicago Public Schools - Client