

KPMG Dynamics Team: 1-Hr Assessment

Dynamics Team Assessment tailored to the Company's needs.

Do business systems in your company work according to your expectations? Do you happen to wait even a few hours for a report to be generated? Thanks to the KPMG Dynamics Team 1-Hr Assessment you will receive free of charge clear guidelines, so that you know what areas and what activities to carry out to have your reports immediately and have your employees satisfied.

KPMG Dynamics 1-Hr Assessment is a service that enable you to benefit from years of KPMG Advisory team's experience, in order to optimize the systems that support your business and eventually improve and grow your company.

Why customers use KPMG's 1-Hr Assessment:

- An innovative approach to digital transformation
- Leverage the right tools for your sales challenges and growth company
- Envision your future business with modern business applications

Accurate assessment

We will smoothly prepare and hold a meeting, during which:

- We will ask only the right questions
- We will use your time effectively
- We will gain the key information

Support in selection of the solution

We will recommend you the best Microsoft solution for your company, based on:

- Key information received during the meeting
- KPMG advisory team's knowledge and experience
- KPMG methodology, adjusted to clients' needs

Support in selection of the vendor

We will provide you with the list of proven vendors, based on:

- Our market knowledge
- KPMG and other Microsoft partners' experience with the implementation
- Microsoft support

Tailored approach

Fine-tuned assessment

Modern business applications

"There is no single, "right" way to approach digital transformation. Some organisations start with a pilot project in a small part of the organisation. Others roll out a larger proof of concept and quickly test and iterate for a broader and more immediate business impact. Regardless of the size of your project, tailored approach and fine-tuned professional assessment are key to the desired business impact of your digital transformation strategy. "

- One of KPMG's Customer

KPMG's Dynamics Assessment Team allows to provide the companies with the right digital transition of business applications

- KPMG Advisory in Poland has many years of experience on business application area especially ERP market
- We know the business problems and we are frequently chosen by the clients thanks to our experience. We have completed hundreds of projects for enterprise companies located in Poland, combining business and technology aspects.
- KPMG Advisory in Poland has the domain experts e.g.: Finance, Customer, Operations, HR, who can support Dynamics implementation projects in the capacity of Subject Matter Expert, discussing target operational model topics with business counterparts at the client.
- KPMG Advisory in Poland is an active member of the KPMG global network, sharing best practices, contributing to methodologies and training databases.

KPMG Dynamics Assessment Offer

Our promise to you

Upon completion of the assessment, the Company will have certainty that the planned digital transformation of business applications will be carried out in accordance with the best practice and using the best suited systems.

An offer to get you started

Please contact us and we will conduct a free 1-Hr Assessment for you within the next 2 weeks.

Tangible Benefits / Desired Outcomes

- Mitigation of risks of unsuccessful implementation or update of existing business applications.
- The possibility of planning further directions of business application development in accordance with the best practices and based on the recommended action plan.
- Confirmation to key stakeholders and supervisory bodies that due care has been undertaken to perform the digital transition properly and cost-effectively with an independent and recognized team of experts.

Why KPMG?

- KPMG has one of the biggest Microsoft Dynamics 365 practice in the world.
- KPMG was one of the first international consulting firms present on the Polish market.
- 30th anniversary of KPMG's presence on the Polish market in 2020.
- We have currently 1900 employees in 7 different locations, including our HQ in Warsaw.