Microsoft 365 License Consultancy

2-Days Assessment Summary

Overview

+ Benefits of Microsoft 365 Application Inventory and License Management

Efficient tracking of application usage

Optimized license allocation and cost savings

+ Process of Consulting Service

Analysis of current application inventory
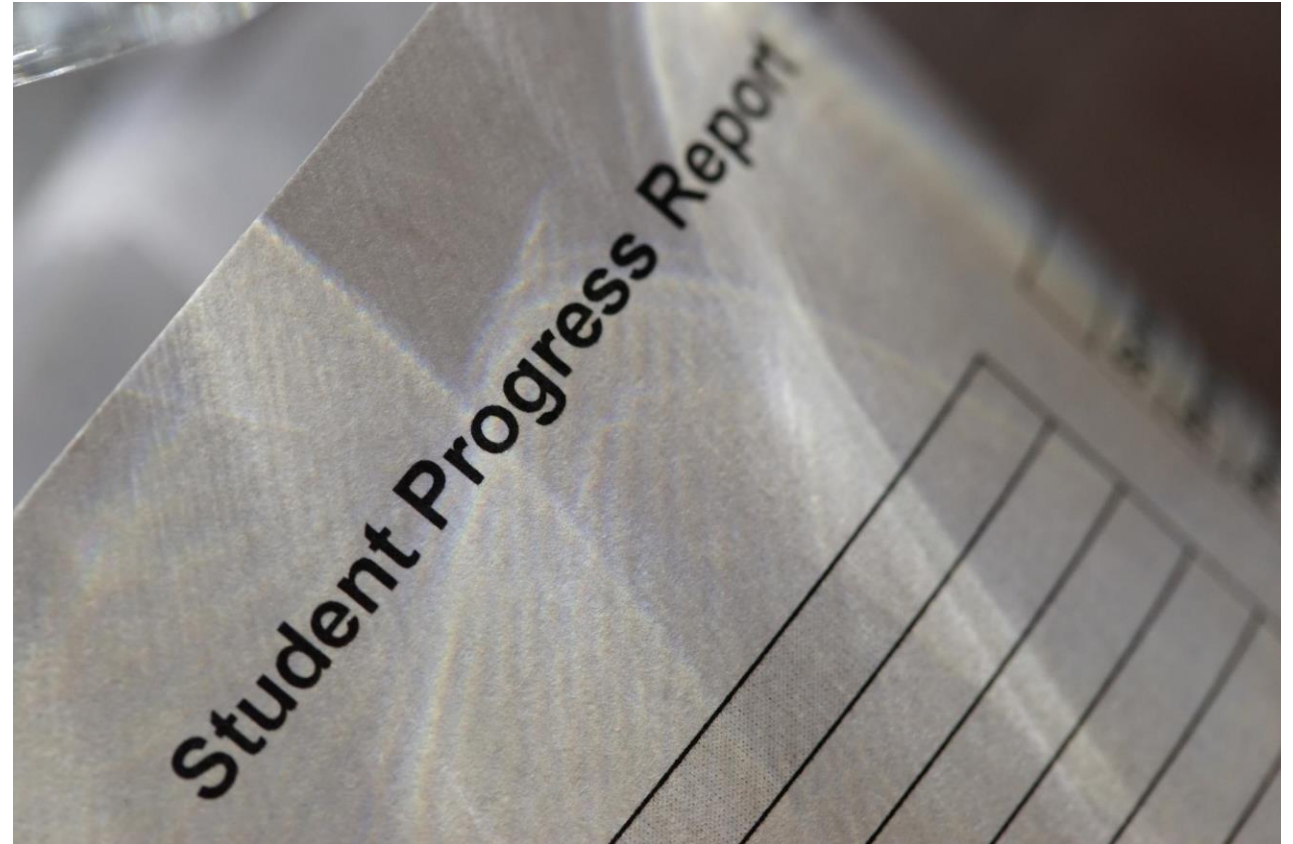

Recommendations for license management

Introduction to Microsoft 365

+ Comprehensive suite of cloud-based productivity and security applications

  Helps organizations achieve goals and optimize IT investments

+ Many organizations unaware of features and capabilities

  Can result in wasted resources, missed opportunities, and increased risks

+ Important to fully utilize licensed products

  Can replace costly and redundant third-party solutions

Benefits of the Assessment Service

+ ## Assessment service

   Provides in-depth analysis of current Microsoft 365 application inventory and license management

What the Assessment Service Provides: Identify Microsoft 365 Products

+ Identify Microsoft 365 products included in license plan

Understand how they meet security needs

Understand how they meet collaboration needs

What the Assessment Service Provides: Discover Unused or Underused Products

+ Enhance productivity and efficiency with Microsoft 365

Reduce reliance on third-party products

What the Assessment Service Provides: Define User Types and Activity Levels

+ Define User Types and Activity Levels

Understand the different types of users in your organization

Identify their activity levels to optimize license usage

What the Assessment Service Provides: Expert Advice and Guidance

+ Receive expert advice and guidance from our licensing consultants

Obtain the right licensing model for your organization

Implement best practices for Microsoft 365 application inventory and license management

Outcome of the Assessment

+ Detailed report of findings and recommendations

  Includes roadmap for next steps

+ Opportunity for discussion with consultants

  Ask questions and discuss specific needs and challenges

+ Maximize return on investment

  Improve security and collaboration

  Lower IT costs with Microsoft 365