Overview

Buyers pay vendors with virtual VISA credit cards issued by NachoNacho ("NachoCards")

How It Works

Buyers discovers Seller's product on NachoNacho Marketplace

How It Works

Buyer goes to Seller's product page and clicks Subscribe

How It Works

Buyer creates a new NachoCard

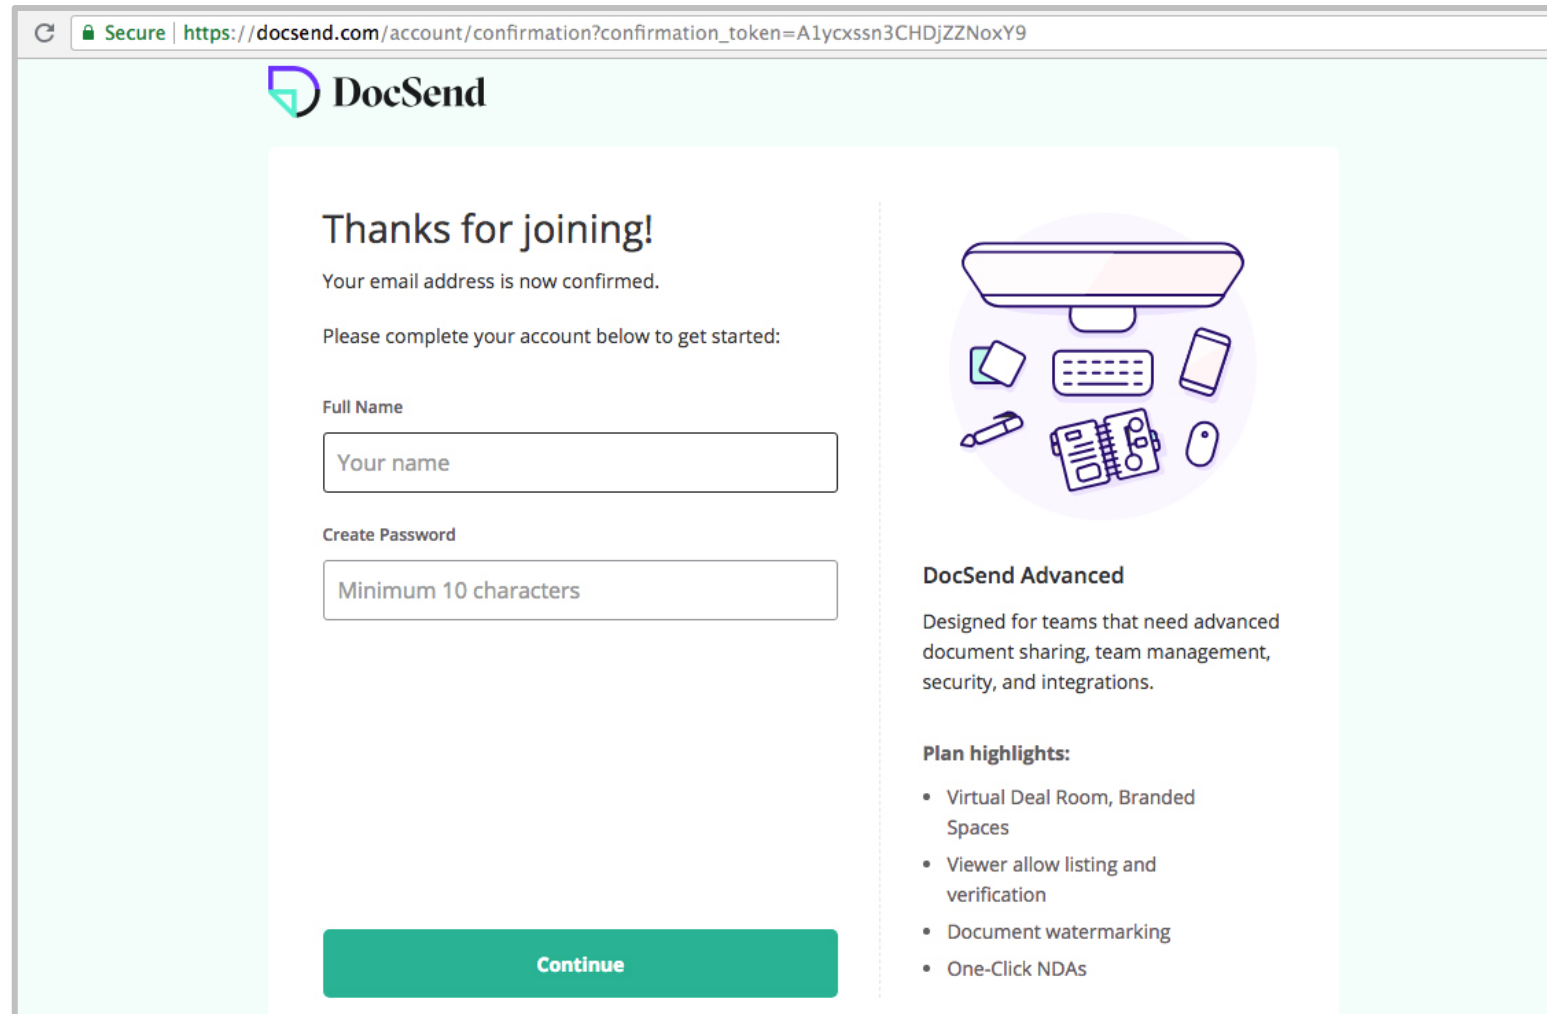

The screenshot shows the NachoNacho user interface. At the top, there is a dropdown menu with 'NachoNacho' and the brand name 'NachoNacho'. A left sidebar contains navigation icons for Home, Payment Source, Members, NachoCards, Subscriptions, Transactions, Settings (NachoNacho), Setup guide, and Marketplace. The main content area features a notification: 'You are now subscribing to Docsend for NachoNacho'. Below this, a message states: 'You will now create a new NachoCard and use this card to pay for your subscription.' The 'NachoCard details' section lists: Cardholder: Sanjay Goel, Company: NachoNacho, Vendor: Docsend, and Spending Limit: None (you can change this later). A blue button labeled 'Create NachoCard Now' is prominent, with a link for 'Change NachoCard Details' below it.

How It Works

Buyer creates an account directly on Seller's platform & pays with the NachoCard

How It Works

Buyer has one dashboard for all their subscriptions

The screenshot shows the NachoNacho dashboard for a user named Sanjay Goel. The dashboard is titled "Subscriptions for NachoNacho" and features a search bar with the placeholder text "Search by Vendor, Member or last 4 digits of NachoCard". There are two buttons for filtering: "Date" and "Filters". The subscriptions are displayed in a grid of eight cards, each with a vendor logo, the vendor name, the member name, and the last four digits of the Visa card.
