

1-Day Virtual Workshop

Azure Security

NewWave offers an Azure Security Center workshop to provide attendees with an end-to-end workshop on its most important security features.

Trained cloud professionals will give hands-on support on how to use this unified infrastructure, security management system to strengthen the security posture of the customer's data centers, and provide advanced threat protection across all of their cloud workloads.

newwave.io