OCTOPAI

How well do you know your data?

Maximize data usability with unprecedented visibility into your data landscape

About us

Enterprises are experiencing an exponential growth in data and are unable to get full control of it, understand or manage it.

Octopai's mission is to enable enterprises to easily get full understanding of their data landscape.

Operating as a data-driven business requires an organizational change in mindset, thinking and approach. Octopai provides the visibility for data teams who influence analytics and eventually crucial business decisions.

Our Impact

Octopai's automated metadata management platform enables BI groups to quikly, easily and accurately find and understand their data so they can drive the business forward.

"Octopai has simplified our BI environment, by providing a singular source of truth. It frees up my BI developers and all report developers so that they're no longer answering questions about data history."

Anilh Rameshwar, Data Architect, Zego Powered By Paylease

"Octopai helps us to narrow down our searches to a couple of places, instead of digging into 100 different corners and angles."

Anna Succi-Kozlowski, Data Governance Lead, JLG
