Company overview

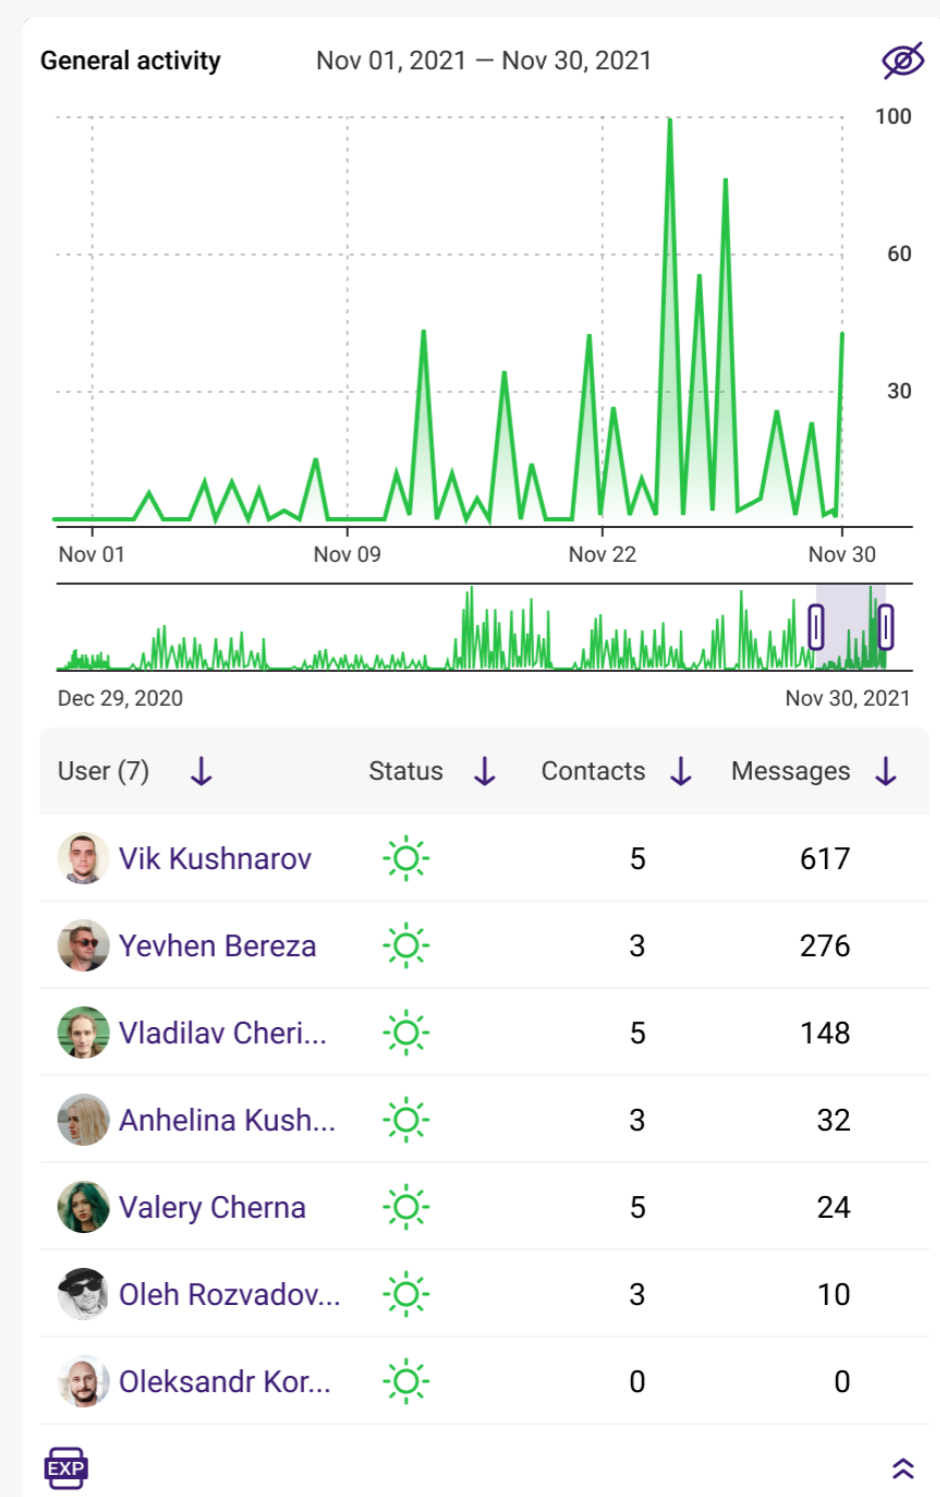

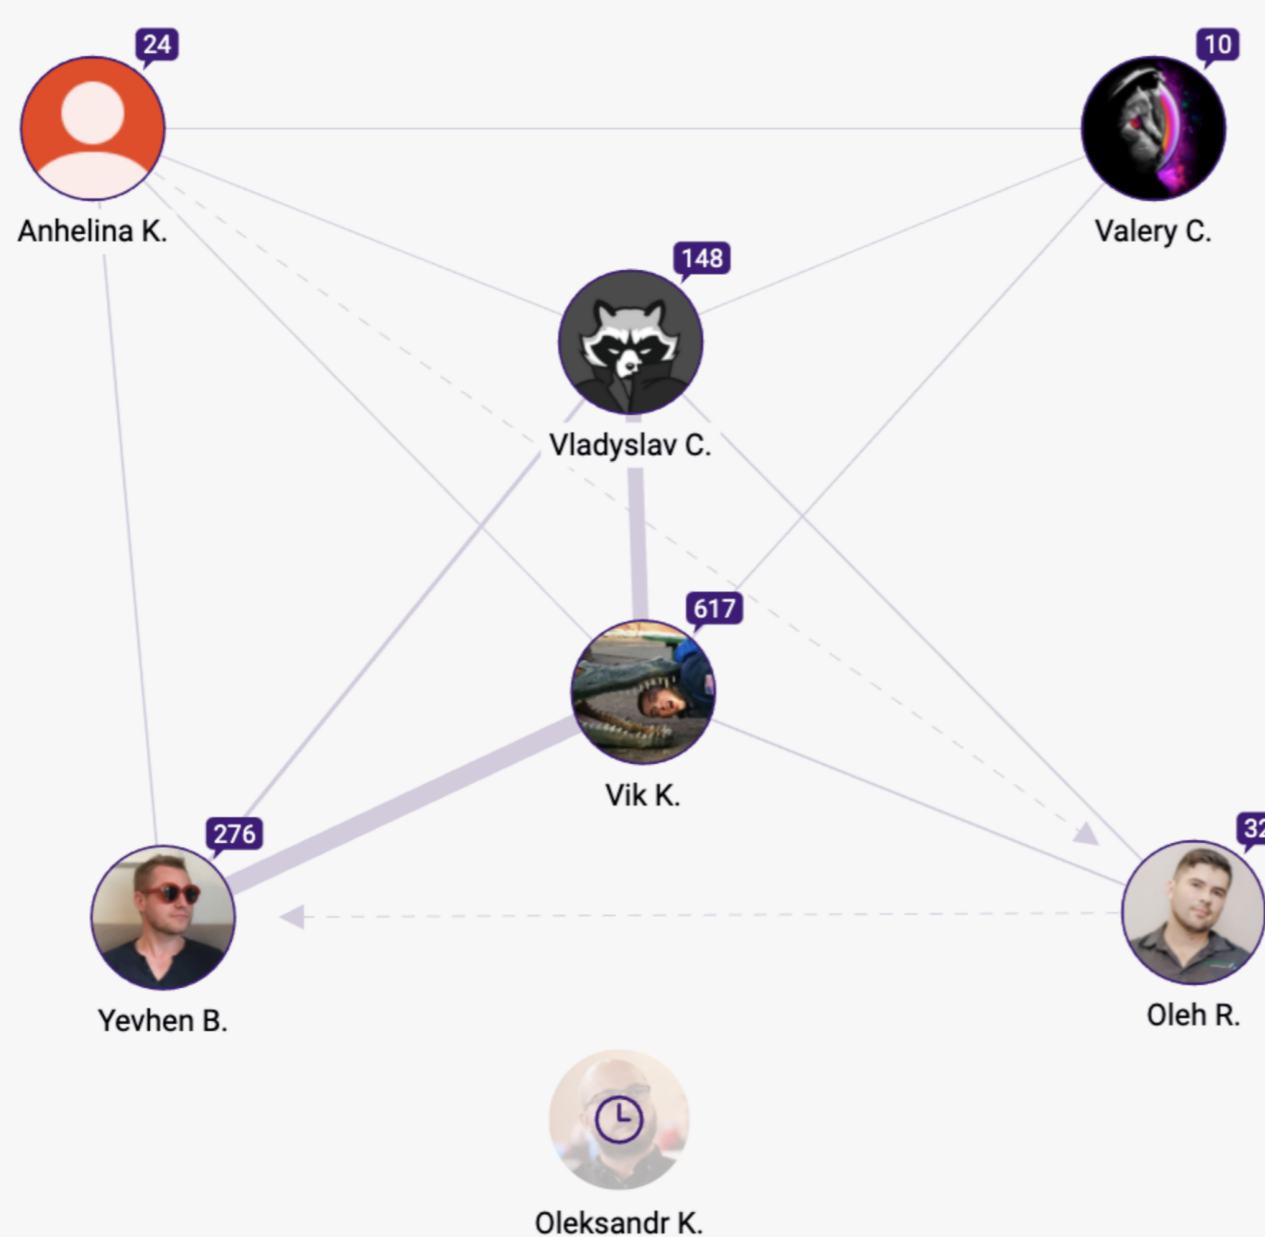

Pavooq is an online platform that helps to solve the problem of non-transparent communication and team cohesion.

The Problem

Current researches show that analyzing an organization's network helps increase its effectiveness. Namely, the patterns of working communication of employees affect the success of the team as a whole.

Pavooq Solution

Pavooq visualizes employee communication, shows key metrics and dynamics of their changes.

For Whom?

HR Analysts, Team leads, and Chief Diversity Officers are the key users of Pavooq.

Pavooq helps HRs to see a map of the working communications of the teams. Also, it helps to predict the potential conflicts between the employees, by looking into their communication patterns.

Pavooq helps the leaders by analyzing communication map data to make more informed decisions about bringing together different team members to work on tasks.

Pavooq helps CDOs to receive information on communication between people of different gender and cultural groups.
