Introduction

Redington's Azure Landing Zone Assessment Services help organizations optimize Azure Cloud deployments with a focus on infrastructure, networking, application planning, and security. Key benefits include:

Security: Robust protection against cyber threats.

Governance: Consistent policies for managing resources.

Cost Optimization: Efficient use of Azure services.

Agility: Faster deployments and easier scaling.

KEY FEATURES

Comprehensive Assessment: Evaluate your existing cloud environment and security posture.

Landing Zone Design: Craft a customized Landing Zone architecture aligned with best practices.

Security Review: Identify and address potential security vulnerabilities.

Governance Framework: Recommend policies and controls for centralized management.

Cost Optimization Analysis: Explore strategies to maximize efficiency within Azure.

KEY BENEFITS

Reduced Risk: Minimize security threats and compliance issues.

Cost Savings: Optimize your Azure spend and avoid overspending.

Improved Efficiency: Streamline deployments and resource management.

Faster Cloud Adoption: Accelerate your migration to Azure and unlock its full potential.

Peace of Mind: Gain confidence knowing your Azure environment is secure and well-architected.

Redington is offering services to Partners, that would support Partner's and end customers across Middle East Africa and can be extended beyond geographical boundaries if customer is not bound by Data Residency regulations in its local operational units.

1)   Azure Landing Zone / Cloud Assessment (this offering)
2)   Azure Cloud Managed Services
3)   Microsoft 365 E3/E5 License Utilization & Deployment
4)   Microsoft 365 E3/E5 Managed Services

All the services listed above are aimed at improving customers experience with Microsoft solutions and offerings with optimum Return on Investment (RoI)

REDINGTON'S OFFERING FOR PARTNERS