

Rubicon Collaboration Accelerator

Users are spending hours per week unnecessarily searching for information, knowledge and colleagues with the right skills to help them with their questions.

The Rubicon Collaboration Accelerator implements a modern social collaboration platform based on innovative technology that meets the growing needs of your business to collaborate and share knowledge. A modern collaboration platform can help accelerate your digital business transformation and unlock new opportunities.

Why customers use the Rubicon Collaboration Accelerator

- Knowledge Management which turns content into topics
- End-users' can easily find relevant news
- Empowering every employee to become an expert

Improve collaboration

- Optimized social collaboration platform
- Optimized knowledge discovery
- Improved onboarding process / learning path in one place

Automation process

- Information governance
- Discover relationships across content & conversations
- Employee healthiness

Empower Employees

- Saving time searching information
- Knowledge Management
- Highly engaged employees
- Provide employee healthiness

Improved user contribution

Effective & Efficient

Connecting people