*Today, we're introducing ChronaPilot.
Not another calendar. Not another productivity app.
ChronaPilot is the infrastructure for how time works in the real world.*

It doesn't just respond. It plans.

Calendars store events. ChronaPilot listens, plans, and executes.

Import your week from Google and Microsoft. Speak naturally. Once you confirm: meetings scheduled, participants notified, reminders optimized — instantly, in 120+ languages.

Complexity disappears behind a simple conversational interface.

✦ Chrona AI - Your Personal Voice AI Copilot

Talk. Go. Arrive.

Speak the way you think. ChronaPilot understands context, priority, and tone — and places events exactly where they should live. The first calendar that actually listens.

01

Ask anything.

Speak naturally. ChronaPilot understands you.

02

It checks. It plans.

Cross-references your day, traffic, weather, and availability.

03

One confirmation. Done.

Event on your calendar. Everyone in the loop.

Also remind me to call Mom before that.

Done. I'll nudge you at 9:30 AM — gives you twenty quiet minutes before the meeting.

Ask Chrona — push Maya 30 min, find me a focus block...

Ask anything. In any language.

Speak naturally in your native voice — Hindi, Yorùbá, Français, Mandarin, Español and 115 more. Multilingual is the default, not a setting. 0.6 seconds, voice to action.

Built on our own engine. Traffic, weather, and your day — woven into a single confident answer. 96% on-time across 10,000+ cities. When the world shifts, ChronaPilot recalculates first.

Not a calendar. The operating layer for time.

ChronaPilot is infrastructure. One intelligent engine — running coordination for 14,200+ businesses, surfacing time-aware commerce, and exposed to developers as a clean API. Built for the people who actually move the world.

FOR BUSINESS

Operations, coordinated.
