Microsoft Teams – Your hub for teamwork in Office 365

Empower employees to collaborate, access corporate applications and data, and make decisions from anywhere, using any device.

The modern workplace runs on teamwork. With remote employees facing challenges like offsite meetings, flexible schedules, rapid iteration, and multiple communication channels, it's important to ensure they stay productive and engaged.

Microsoft Teams offers tools that make it easy to switch on the power of teamwork and ensure your employees' success. SHI's Microsoft Teams experts offer a rapid, elastic approach to evaluating your environment while implementing Microsoft Teams.

What we offer:

- Assessment of your technology and the ability to scale out internally, including communication plans and support structure
- Rapid rollout of Teams to remote users, including defined program scope
- Ways to expand your Microsoft Teams workplace to the periphery
- Enablement and adoption of Teams core features, security protocols, and collaboration capabilities
- Enablement of Teams telephony with the help of Microsoft calling plan, direct routing, and operator connect methods
- Rapid modernization and scaling of your collaboration capabilities
- A change management plan to encourage the adoption of key technologies to facilitate person-to-person engagement, internal meetings, and large-scale user training
- Custom integrations to your existing business processes

Benefits:

- Proven project templates for rapid deployment
- Adaptation of leadership practices and behavioral norms for the current context, while protecting culture and engagement in a distributed workforce
- Expertise, assets, and best practices to provide practical action immediately, based on our joint capability/maturity assessment
