

AZURE STRATEGY ADVISORY SERVICE

Setting you up for a successful cloud adoption by reducing the challenges and giving tailored advice.

HOW DOES THIS SERVICE WORK?

The cloud can completely transform your organisation. However, it's vital that you understand the route to long term success. Reducing challenges with advice and simple actions ensures you create a strategy to build a successful and efficient cloud.

All our Solutions Architects and Technical Consultants are trained to Expert level in Microsoft Azure. Following the Azure Cloud Adoption Framework (CAF), our experts do all the groundwork to assess your options and advise on the best way to harness cloud best practices. Once they have understood your unique goals and business objectives, a tailored strategy report is created, with actionable insights and recommendations to guide you to realise your ambitions. Once the report has been handed over, our Azure Professional Services team remain on hand to support your journey, even after we've delivered our report.

BENEFITS TO YOU

People

Moving to the cloud can be complex. Our advice and actions can support your teams to avoid common mistakes and harness cloud best practices. Even once our report has been delivered, our expert level-trained specialists are still on hand to ensure your teams continue to receive the best advice and support.

Platforms

Our Azure Strategy Advisory service is fully tailored to your organisation's goals. We work with you to understand your current state and then advise on a solution that allows you to seize new technologies with transformative effects. The service will support in taking your first, or next, step into building the perfect cloud for your business.

Commercial

Moving into cloud can be very complex, and little, or incorrect, planning can lead to spiralling costs and major delays. Our experts will provide recommendations to ensure you adopt cloud in the most efficient and safe way, reducing the risks of losing control of your cloud spend.
