SAM Lite

The average enterprise IT manager has thousands of assets to manage, optimize, and protect. Managing IT assets can be complicated. Data is buried in disconnected silos. Information on your environment is everywhere but at your fingertips. SAM Lite, powered by Block 64® gives you the insights you need to reduce waste, mitigate risk, improve security, and embrace the future – all from one platform.

Security. Address threats requiring immediate action and get recommendations to uncover and mitigate risk to your business.

Optimization. Ensure that your configurations and architecture match the requirements of your organization—and don't leave any capacity unutilized, or any money on the table.

Consolidation. Reveal opportunities to do more with less, and decrease your core counts, RAM consumption. You can even leverage new computing metaphors to be more effective, and you can do it all now.
