

POC driven accelerated implementation

Sogeti Kickstart for Dynamics 365 Unified Operations is a POC driven accelerated implementation approach based on industry standards and best practices specially developed for companies in industries as Manufacturing and Distribution. This accelerator helps you reducing speed as well as cost for the implementation.

Sogeti Kickstart for Dynamics 365 Unified Operations is an accelerator with configured business processes based on out of the box functionality and Azure technology.

Why customers use Kickstart for D365 UO

Lower cost by focusing on your most critical processes and how they are supported by out of the box technology and functions.

Lower risk by using best practice processes and methods following standards as GS1, Incoterms, BAS and IFRS.

Accelerated implementation by using pre-configured best practice processes supported by task recordings.

Confidence and recognition since your master data will be used during the POC

Accelerated implementation

- Preconfigured best practice processes
- Supportive task recordings
- Uses wide spread standards

Leverages value for your investment

Out of the box functionality

- Data projects for supporting migration
- Prepared for leading ISVs
- Value adding features from the Power platform

Uses the best features in UO and on the Power Platform

Seeing is believing

- Look and feel based on your own master data
- Verification of your ways of working
- Platform technology at it best

Creates credibility in your organization

How to Kickstart for D365 Unified Operations works, to achieve business benefits

Get started in a couple of weeks

- By using this accelerator you'll be shortening the implementation timeline with months
- We've taken clients live in 60 days!

Accelerator for Manufacturing and Distribution

- Standard processes with supportive task recordings and data projects
- Focus is on most critical functions and processes
- The POC helps you to create confidence in your organization before an a full scale implementation.

Customer value by use of standard functions and technology

- Time for adjustments and add-ons significantly lower than other products
- Future safe for continuously upgrades
- Easier to maintain and to a lower cost

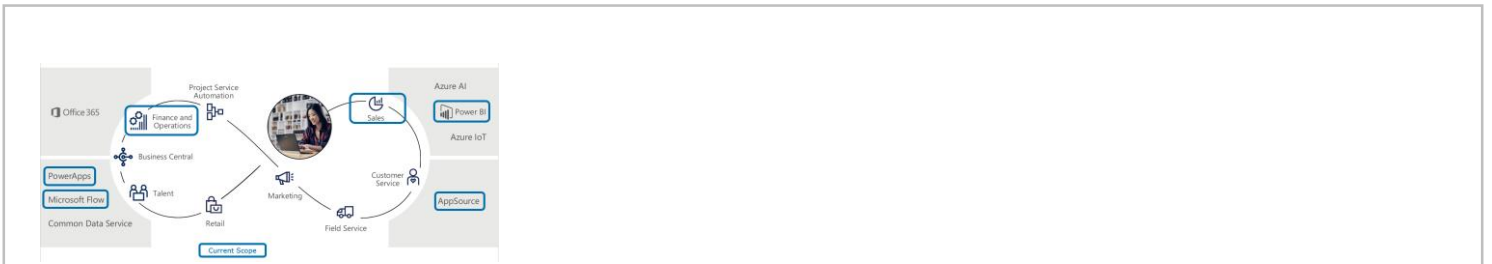

Kickstart Dynamics 365 Unified Operations

Our promise to you

By investing in a proof of concept based on the use of best practice processes you will both shorten the timeline for implementation as well as reduce the implementation budget

Fixed price

- No licenses needed for the POC
- Accelerated implementation approach
- Use of standard functions and features
- POC for 500.000 SEK
- The POC will be the used for the full scale implementation.

Benefits / Desired Outcomes

- Saves time and money
- Shortens the timeline for implementation
- Ensures that you're choosing the right business system

Why Kickstart for Dynamics 365 Unified Operations

Kickstart boosts your implementation of Dynamics 365 Unified Operations by combining best practice processes with supportive task recordings and data projects in Unified Operations with the best features on the power platform.