Workplace Assessment

Get the value of Sword Technologies to modernize the way you manage your workplace

How can I optimize my related cost ? How migrate easily my workplace from a third party or SCCM to Microsoft Endpoint Manager ? What is the real added-value for my team and my end-users ?

What is Workplace management Assessment?

Our Workplace management assessment allows you to benefit from the experience of our engineers and architects to assist you in your digital transformation strategy of your current workplace solution.

Our solution allows you to quickly identify issues/blockers, mitigate those risks/issues by a clear understanding of your objectives and offer a migration plan

Why are our clients using our assessment methodology ?

This at-a-glance box!

- Analyze your existing workplace platform

- Fast identification of compatible configuration

- Migration plan and design of your future workplace solution

Enhanced Security

- Use of the latest security solutions

- Benefit from the experience of "other customers"

- Integration of simplified third-party tools if needed

More certifications than any other Workplace providers

Improved features

- Always benefit of the latest features

- Add or remove configuration at any time

- Management through a unified portal

Adjustment of its infrastructure on the fly

Cost optimization and control

- Proactive cost monitoring

- Proposal for improvement and financial optimization

- Dedicated and easy to use portal

Eliminate shadow IT

Workplace management assessment solution allowed us to quickly analyze your current workplace solution and then focus on partner with your team to the future management platform. This approach allowed us to quickly offer a strategy to our customer based on our large and recognized expertise

How Workplace management assessment works and what are the benefits for a simple and controlled digital transformation project
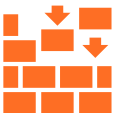

Analysis phase :

- Use of recognized tools on the market
- Already more than hundred complex analyzes performed
- An accurate estimate of costs in the case of a 1: 1 migration

Study phase:

- Identify configuration that can be reused
- Already more than +50 solution migrated to MS Endpoint Manager
- Proposed migration plans and strategies

Sword Technology is a managed partner by Microsoft

- Access to internal resources for design and architecture
- Work session with Microsoft teams (if needed)
- Recognition, reliability and expertise

Workplace Assessment:

Our promise to you

Leave IT complexity behind you and Sword will take care of.

An offer to get you started

- No revolution but smooth evolution to new IT paradigm
- Innovation cost reduction and more agility are the top issues to address by our customers.
- Our Team is composed of Microsoft MVP's that will bring the highest level of expertise

What are the benefits :

- Using recognized analysis tools embedding configuration reporting
- Effective and well-executed project plan
- Architects and certified engineers all having carried out multiple similar projects

Why Sword Technologies:

Sword Technologies is a Microsoft-managed partner that has already jointly or individually completed a number of similar projects. Our teams are all certified on the technologies we use and deploy.

For the past 8 years, Sword Technologies has been supporting companies wishing to transform the way they manage their data center.

SWORD
TECHNOLOGIES