

Competency Assessment Tool

Train where it matters.

The Sysdoc Competency Assessment Tool can help you understand your people's competency levels so you can focus your training efforts and spend where it matters most.

Benefits

- + Identify the competency levels of your people against your key capabilities
- + Understand your people's needs through quality reports
- + Focus your training efforts and spend where it matters the most
- + Assist with workforce planning and agility
- + Contribute to lifting competency levels to increase productivity - you can do more with less
- + Lift your retention rates through focused personal development goals.

Key Features

- + Engaging UI and UX focused design
- + Quick one-off or manager-calibrated assessment pathways
- + Clear, easy-to-interpret reports for employees
- + Multiple frameworks cover multiple roles within a single tool
- + An easy-to-use admin tool for lite ongoing data maintenance and updates
- + Explore mode, allows users to see how they fit against other roles
- + Integrates seamlessly into M365 apps such as PowerBI
- + SharePoint based, with data managed securely within your M365 environment.

Understand your people

Assess

The section-based tool allows you to easily assess your peoples' competencies, in an engaging way, across multiple roles.

Review

Intuitive, informative reports for your employees, and BI reports for your business, provide insight into how your people are doing.

Respond

Discover your peoples' strengths and focus your training efforts and spend where it matters most.

