

Email Marketing for Every Business

ABOUT ENGINEMAILER:

Enginemailer is an integrated cloud platform that offers database management, email marketing and transactional email – ideal for individuals, small and medium businesses as well as corporations looking to better connect with their customers.

See what customers are saying:

"I managed to cut down on cost and time in crafting and delivering my email campaign which is a great plus for SME like myself. The ease of use reduces the learning curve and I am able to do everything myself without hiring an expert"

–April C, Email Marketing Strategist

WHAT WE OFFER

Enginemailer is a Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) platform built on Microsoft Azure. We provide our customers with comprehensive and easy-to-use features for email marketing and automation. Enginemailer combines simple yet powerful drag-and-drop interfaces, advanced data analytics and a complete set of integration APIs to support the ever changing needs of every business.

With our Free Forever plan, we offer you 10,000 monthly emails to kick-start your email marketing journey with zero obligation. Our flexible subscription options enable upgrade (and downgrade) whenever you want based on your business dynamics. All of our plans allow you to store unlimited subscribers at no cost.

Enginemailer leverages on Microsoft Azure to provide our customers with an Enterprise grade solution that has high system availability, state-of-the-art security and instant scalability.

Why Microsoft Azure?

Be future-ready
