

The Co-Sell.com: AI-Powered Co-Selling for ISVs & AEs

Revolutionizing Co-Selling with AI

The Co-Sell.com is an AI-driven co-sell agent designed to bridge the gap between Independent Software Vendors (ISVs) and Cloud Provider Account Executives (AEs). By leveraging artificial intelligence, we help AEs identify the right solutions at the right time, while enabling ISVs to receive high-quality, pre-qualified leads effortlessly.

Key Benefits

- AI-Powered Matching - Connects ISVs with AEs based on real-time customer intent and needs.
- Automated Lead Flow - ISVs receive highly relevant leads without manual intervention.
- Intelligent Insights - AEs get AI-driven recommendations to co-sell effectively.
- Seamless Integration - Works with major cloud marketplaces to streamline deal execution.
- Scalable & Secure - Enterprise-grade security ensures compliance and multi-region support.

How It Works

1. AI Analyzes Market Signals - Identifies opportunities based on cloud provider data, customer behavior, and industry trends.
2. Smart Matching Algorithm - Recommends the best ISV solutions to AEs at the right moment.
3. Automated Lead Sharing - Ensures ISVs receive timely leads while AEs stay focused on closing deals.
4. Actionable Insights & Tracking - Provides real-time analytics and performance tracking for both ISVs and AEs.

Why The Co-Sell.com?

- Accelerate Revenue Growth - Close deals faster with the power of AI.
- Stronger ISV-AE Collaboration - Ensure seamless co-selling experiences.
- Right Solutions at the Right Time - Deliver customer-focused outcomes efficiently.
