

Unlock 0365 Benefits:

Plan, Implement, and Optimise for Streamlined IT and Enhanced User Experience

Waterstons are global Gold partners with Microsoft across Cloud, Security & Workplace products.

Our Australian and UK operational centres deliver quality tech and advisory solutions.

Headquartered in Sydney, we offer end-to-end services in Cyber Security, Tech Consulting, Managed Services, Data & Analytics.

We work to understand your organisation, evaluating people, process and technologies, blending our expertise and experience to deliver best practice solutions that work for your organisational needs.

What We Do:

You might be considering consolidating your workloads into Azure, or maybe you are not utilising your O365 license effectively?

Our consultants can assess your current environment, utilisation of O365 products and recommend an effective strategy to streamline your IT operational model and improve your employee experience.

We take a security first approach to all our deployments and managed services. Operational optimisation and improved end user experience should always be the realisation of a best practice IT strategy.

What We Do:

Strategic Planning

We'll design and implement Office 365, maximising your investment and unlocking its benefits.

Azure Workload Consolidation

Seamlessly consolidate workloads into Azure for enhanced efficiency.

O365 Utilisation Assessment

Our experts assess your current environment, recommend strategies to streamline IT operations, and improve employee experience.

Security-First Approach

We prioritise security in all deployments and managed services.

Operational Optimisation

Realise best practice IT strategies for operational efficiency and improved user experience.

Migration and Optimisation Programs

We manage end-to-end processes, from planning to execution, change management, user training, and BAU handover.

Fractured Environment Consolidation

We assist in consolidating fractured environments and safeguarding operational data.

Minimal Disruption

Our comprehensive approach ensures minimal disruption to your business operations. Trust us for a smooth transition.

We look forward to hearing from you soon.
