

Business Central vs Finance & Supply Chain Management Assessment

Not Sure Which Microsoft ERP is Right for You?

Choosing between Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central and Dynamics 365 Finance & Supply Chain Management (F&SCM) is a critical decision. It depends on your organization's size, complexity, industry needs, and future plans. Western Computer's structured assessment helps you determine which solution aligns best with your business goals and technical requirements.

What to Expect from the Assessment

Led by senior ERP consultants and delivered remotely in one day, this assessment starts with a deep dive into your business profile—then zooms in on your operational complexity and growth needs.

What We Evaluate:

- Business Size & Global Footprint
- Financial Management & Legal Entity Structure
- Supply Chain & Manufacturing Complexity
- Customization & Integration Needs
- Regulatory & Industry Requirements
- Scalability & Cost of Ownership
- User Experience & Adoption Readiness
- Fit with Microsoft Ecosystem (Power Platform, Azure, Microsoft 365)
- AI & Copilot Opportunities

We'll show you how Microsoft's Copilot AI can support your workflows—whether you need rapid task automation in Business Central or advanced planning and forecasting in F&SCM.

Contact Western Computer to schedule your ERP readiness assessment and start your path toward smarter, scalable operations.
