

Get to know Woffu

A specialized solution for time policy management

The screenshot displays a user interface for managing vacation requests. At the top, it says "Solicitudes pendientes" with a red badge containing the number "10". Below this is a card for a request from "Laura Arreguín", who is requesting "6 días de vacaciones". There is a green "Aprobar" button. Underneath, there are sections for "Coincidencias" (showing five profile icons and a "+3" icon) and "Responsable" (showing one profile icon).

Before, HR departments focused on managing payroll, vacations, leaves, or simple administrative processes...

Today, HR professionals are agents of change, culture advocates, and strategic business leaders.

The screenshot shows a web-based calendar interface for shift management. The interface includes a sidebar with navigation options: Dashboard, Calendario (selected), Solicitudes, Presencia, Documentos, Equipo, Informes, Configuración, and Integraciones. The main area displays a calendar for the week of November 1-6, 2024, for 'Corporativo' and 'Toda la compañía'. The calendar is organized by employee rows and days of the week columns. Each cell contains a shift type, time range, and duration. For example, Aaron Ramírez has a 'Tienda Mañana' shift from 09:00 to 15:00 (6h) on Monday. The interface also features a search bar for employees, a filter icon, and a 'Horario' button.
