

Buyer Persona Generator

Know your customers like never before.

xorpa

A buyer persona is a fictional representation of your ideal customer.

More often than not, it is based on intuition.

Xeerpa uses AI and Big Data.

- ✓ Analyse your customers and define the most precise Buyer Persona, of your real customers
No more costly surveys to panels that become obsolete over time. Xeerpa analyses the current profiling data available in real time and generates an up-to-date Persona within seconds.

Why?

- ✓ A precise Buyer Persona is key in any Data-Driven, Customer-Centric strategy.
Take Customer Profiling to the next level with Xeerpa, the most advanced user profile based on data.
- ✓ Base your decisions on information and insights, not on intuition.
Know your customers like never before, with +400 attributes per consumer.
- ✓ Trust your own First-Party data.
Xeerpa helps you complement your CRM/CDP/DataLake so you can make informed decisions based on your own information.
- ✓ Improve your ROI by targeting the right audience.
Understand the preferences of your customers and focus your strategy on what they value the most.
- ✓ Find new customers.
Only when you identify the characteristics of your target audience you can effectively search for look-alikes.
- ✓ Because segmentation is not enough.
Segmentation lets you differentiate between various groups of consumers, but their Buyer Persona lets you identify their key common features, values and motivations.
- ✓ Keep your Buyer Personas updated.
People change, and so do your customers. No need for a new round of surveys; Update your Persona at a click of a button.
